

Notice of Patient Privacy Practices

According to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, known as HIPPA. Physical, Occupational and speech therapists in private practices must incorporate the federal privacy standards to protect patient's medical records and other health information provided to health plans, doctors, hospitals, and other health care providers. Please note that your personal health information may be used by Carlisle Place Physical Therapy and Wellness Center, LLC for treatment, obtaining payment, during an audit, in emergencies, or when required by law. You will be asked for written authorization to use your personal medical information for any other reason than those listed above. You have the right to review your personal health information at any time, to request that inaccurate information be corrected, or to request a list of instances when the information has been disclosed for reasons other than treatment, payment, and administrative operations. The request for restrictions will be considered on a case by case basis. You have the right to address concerns and complaints about potential violation of your health privacy to the US Department of Health and Human Services.

If you have any specific restrictions for the use and disclosure of your health information please list the below:

---

---

---

---

I understand that as part of this organization's treatment, payment, or health care operations, it may become necessary to disclose my protected health information to another entity, and I consent to such disclosure for these permitted uses, including disclosure by fax.